Dear Mr. Sai:

This is the final response to your August 19, 2019 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, a copy of which is attached for your convenience. We received your request on August 20, 2019 and assigned it case number 19-F-1683. We ask that you use this number when referring to your request.

According to the FOIA's legislative history, a description of records requested is sufficient if it enables a professional employee of the agency who is familiar with the subject area of the request to locate the records with a reasonable amount of effort. Courts have also stated that a request is reasonably described if the agency is able to determine "precisely" what records are being requested. The "reasonably described" requirement exists because the FOIA was not intended to reduce government agencies to full-time investigators on behalf of requesters. As such, it is the requester's responsibility to frame requests with sufficient particularity to ensure that searches are not unreasonably burdensome, and to enable the searching agency to determine precisely what records are being sought.

After carefully reviewing your request, your request is too broad, and not reasonably described. Courts have held that requests using phrases such as "all, or any and all; refer or related to in any way; including, but not limited to" are not reasonably descriptive.

If you are not satisfied with this response, you may contact our OSD FOIA Public Liaison, Darrell Williams, at 571-372-0462 or by email at OSD.FOIALiaison@mail.mil. Also, please note that the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers services to requesters who have disputes with Federal agencies. You may contact OGIS if you have concerns about the processing of your request. Their contact information is provided below:
